

Detailed information about the partner

Partner	Telemark University College
Partner's name in native language	Høgskolen i Telemark
Website	http://www.hit.no
Brief description of the partner:	Telemark University College, also known as TUC (Høgskolen I Telemark or HiT in Norwegian) has approximately 5500 students, 600 staff and is the 4th largest, out of 24 state-owned, universities colleges in Norway. TUC has 5 campuses and offers one of the broadest spectrum of academic opportunities in the country. There are 160 study programmes and fields of study are: Art, Design and Traditional Arts Business studies and Computer Sciences Culture and Humanities Environmental Studies, Health and Social Work Studies Sport, Physical Education and Outdoor Life Studies Teacher Education Technology/Engineering The three pillars of the TUC activities are education, research and dissemination. TUC's main ambition is to be granted full university accreditation before 2016. This will add to the wealth of academic and research opportunities in Telemark.
Language of instruction	Norwegian (some courses/programs in English ex " Business administration for Exchange Students)